

NEWS RELEASE

École Anne-Hébert teacher publishes her first book

(Richmond, BC) April 3, 2008. Ms. Marie-Laure Chevrier, teacher responsible for the French-language acquisition program at École Anne-Hébert in Vancouver, invites members of the Francophone community to the launching of her first book on Thursday, April 17, at 7 p.m., in the school library (7051 Killarney St., Vancouver). Entitled Les antennes d'Adrienne et autres nouvelles de mon île, the book is published by Éditions La Plume d'Oie of Cap-St-Ignace, Québec. Members of the media are invited to attend this literary activity hosted jointly by the Anne-Hébert Library and the author.

In Les antennes d'Adrienne et autres nouvelles de mon île, Marie-Laure Chevrier pens a collection of short stories presenting legendary characters from her place of birth, Québec's Magdalen Islands. The book launching is one of the activities held during École Anne-Hébert's reading month. The school is one of 39 schools managed by the Conseil scolaire francophone de la Colombie-Britannique (BC's Francophone School District – SD No 93).

Ms. Chevrier has taught at the Conseil scolaire francophone since its creation in 1995. She has distinguished herself by her love of the French language, her passion for the history of Maillardville's French-Canadian population and the province's Francophone community. She is greatly appreciated for her efforts to convey her love of the French language and culture to the Francophone students in her school.

Since its creation in 1995, the Conseil Scolaire francophone de la Colombie-Britannique offers educational programs and services geared towards the growth and cultural promotion of the province's Francophone learners. An active partner in the development of British Columbia's francophone community, the Conseil has presently in its system, and distributed across 78 communities in the province, over 4,000 students and 39 schools, which includes 21 homogeneous schools.

For more information, please contact Ms. Marie-Laure Chevrier, École Anne-Hébert teacher, at 604 713-4858.

- 30 -

Reference:

Paul de la Riva
Director of Communications
Conseil scolaire francophone de la C.-B. (School District No. 93)
T. 604 214-2617
Cell. 778 840-2733
pdelariva@csf.bc.ca

LA FIERTÉ FRANCOPHONE S'APPREND AUSSI À L'ÉCOLE